Unit Name: Unit 2- Found Video (the art of montage, collage)

Unit Description: START YOUR ASSIGNMENT ON THE CLASS WIKI

Create a found footage experimental video that explores your own unique idea through found video, sound and music footage, while using iMovie for editing and compositing the imagery. Research what experimental video is and also what found footage resources exist on line. Experimental Video can involve using found footage, images and sound. There are many free photo and video resources you can use to do this. To develop an idea for an experimental video that uses found footage try to think of the project as a collage project, but in the 4th dimension (motion/time based media). The video may not follow a usual story line trajectory...things may not be linear. There may never be a resolution or climax like in a usual story. The plot could also be negotiable. As you search for video clips think about what they remind you of. Connect them to things in your life and see where they take you.

Found Footage Video Requirements:

- Research the various types of experimental video and start to develop an awareness of the possibilities of this medium. Emphasis on explorations that use time based media, performance art & sound design.
- Create a 1 minute experimental video utilizing only found video or still images.
- Create a video using found sound or music as soundtrack for the video. Do not record anything for this, instead collage together multiple sound tracks for the video that have been found.
- Use iMovie edits and explore and experiment with at least two special effects on part or all of the finished experimental video. Make sure the iMovie preferences have advanced tools enabled.
- Utilize a collage-style to complete the video.
- Create a unique, video that features strong composition, concept and craftsmanship.
- Connect this video to your own experiences and life.

Research

- Use the wiki page on Found Video and explore the many resources available that are Creative Commons, meaning they can be used without permission because they are no longer copyrighted.
- Collect multiple video clips, sounds and music from these sites and download into a folder for the project called FoundVideo.

Learning Targets

1. Identify each learning target for the Priority Standard in the context of the unit.

2. For each learning target, label the type of each learning target using the following:

- Knowledge (K)- What I need to know
- Skill (S)- What I can demonstrate
- Product (P)-What I can make to show my learning
- Reasoning (R)-What I can do with what I know

The Student Will....

Priority Standard Proficiency Scales

For each Priority Standard listed above create a Proficiency Scale that clarifies the levels of proficiency for the Priority Standard in the context of the unit.

Proficiency Scale: Describing levels of a Priority Standard vs. Rubric: Describing levels of a task
