Assignment Description: Interior Space-Mood Through Color & Realistic Perspective

Create a fully rendered color painting/drawing of an interior space, while working from observation. Be as detailed as possible with this interpretation. Create a mood through the use of color and lighting. Utilize accurate proportions and perspective to make the space look 3-dimensional and realistic.

Specifics:

- Work must be a 18 x 24 or 16 x 20
- Show that you understand and can apply knowledge of the 3 Cs of quality art-making
 - Composition: Is there evidence of competent visual organization and design?
 - Craftsmanship: Is there evidence of technical proficiency and visual acuity?
 - Concept: Is there evidence of a clear conceptual idea present that most viewers understand?
- Work must be detailed and represent everything you see
- Work must show that student thought about design of the page with elements touching all of the paper or canvas
- Work must be rendered in full color media Painting: acrylic or watercolor, Drawing: oil pastels, chalk pastels or color pencil
- Work must show accurate proportions, perspective and spatial relationships of subject
- Work should not be a still life, but go beyond to show an entire interior space with a complex foreground, middle ground and background.
- If working from a photograph you must bring in your own, not from the Internet!
- People can be in the final work, but should not be the subject. This is about the space.
- Due in 6 classes not counting today (intro class)

Visual Journal Requirements:

- Develop 2-3 pages that are designed and illustrated and explain your goals for this class.
- Develop 1-2 pages of visual research of artists and places you might choose to illustrate include all media, written ideas and sketches. Explain how you will use lighting to express a mood?
- Create 6-8 complex thumbnails to plan your work. Make sure they illustrate a complex composition and idea including a foreground, middle ground and back ground.
- Written explanation of the mood you hope to convey with your work. How will you accomplish this? Why is this mood appropriate for this space? How will you meet the criteria of the 3 Cs with this drawing/painting?
