

Creative Media Usage:

- Food art food paints (ketchup, coffee, tea, mustard, pudding can all be interesting to paint with)
  - Look at artist Giuseppe Acrimbolodo
  - collage with garbage (not gross stuff!!), recycle materials like cereal boxes etc, old newspapers, clothing fabric scraps
  - Check out Wasteland by Vik Muniz here and here
- Make up as and Art Form:
  - lipstick and other make-up can be cool to paint with, there is some pretty creative stuff out there.
  - Research and go for it. Your face can be a work of art.
  - My Pinterest board on painting has a bunch of make-up painting on it.
- Homemade Paint and Pigment:
  - try to make your own paint with food juices and herbs or with other natural materials found in your home cabinets.
  - Natural Pigments You Can Make At Home from Herbs and Food Natural Earth Pigment Paints to Make at Home
  - Mrs. Bjork's Pinterest on Home Made Paints \(Links to an external site.\)
- Land and Nature Art:
  - consider going outside and try to be like artist Andy Goldsworthy and compose a painting using natural materials creating land art
  - Look at the work of Robert Smithson and his Spiral Jetty
- Alternative Mark making and Tools
  - Mrs. Bjork's Pinterest Board on MarkMaking
  - make your own tool to paint and make marks with

On Canvas Use the Resources There

From the Canvas Homepage scroll to the bottom and click on the Visual Journal page and/or the Inspirations Page. There are many ways to make art shared there.

Online Art Museums and Galleries

There are tons of online galleries, but here are a few I thought you'd enjoy.

Famous Painters

Vincent Van Gogh

SFO MOMA-Modern Art

Smart Art History- Khan Academy

Getty Museum Online

WikiArt

Google Art Project

Museo del Prado in Madrid Spain

MOMA NYC

The Uffizi in Florence, Italy